

Antonis M. Vartholomeos

Chief Executive Officer

Executive Member of the Board

Antonis Vartholomeos was born in Athens in 1957.

He is a graduate of the University of Piraeus (1980) and as a Ph.D Candidate he completed his Masters and Doctoral coursework, working on his dissertation in Finance & International Economics at FORDHAM University - New York (1986).

He started his career in the banking sector in 1981 in the United States of America, initially in ATLANTIC BANK OF NEW YORK and then in OLYMPIAN BANK, where he worked until 1992. He acquired expertise in the areas of financing, investments, the capital market, real estate and securitization of mortgages, passing through senior and top management positions.

He returned to Greece in 1992 where he took up positions of responsibility in the developing banking market (Interbank, Egnatia Bank) in the areas of Mortgage Lending, Technology, Credit and Financial Risks Auditing and in bank subsidiaries specializing in the Capital Market.

In January 2000, he became General Manager and later on, Executive Vice President of EUROHOLDINGS CAPITAL & INVESTMENT CORP. S.A.

In June 2004, he was elected as Executive Member of the Board in EYDAP S.A. In May 2005 he took over the position of CEO and later on he was appointed the positions of the Chairman of the Board and CEO, until May 2010. During his tenure, the company achieved high growth rates and increased its profitability, as he was responsible for the formulation and implementation of the strategic plan and the company's modernization and financial reorganization.

From December 2010 until June 2012 he was Chairman of the Board in PEGASUS SECURITIES S.A.

From April 2011 to July 2013, he was a Member of the Board of Directors of the Hellenic Republic Asset Development Fund S.A. (HRADF S.A.). As a member of the Board and from the very first stages of the creation of the Fund, he actively participated in the development of the strategies for the privatization of the property of the Greek State (OPAP, Piraeus Port, Hellinikon Airport, etc.)

From April 2013 to July 2015 he was Chairman and CEO of EYDAP S.A. During his tenure he implemented a high-demand and large-scale reorganization program, transforming EYDAP from a low valuation company, with limited liquidity and many internal problems, into a financially sound company with over €200 million cash and zero lending.

From July 2019 he was elected as Executive Member of the Board of Attica Bank S.A., undertaking the position of Deputy Chief Executive Officer, responsible for the divisions of Retail, Digital, Wholesale, Operations and Information Technology with the task to design and implement all the relevant strategies, with direct reference to the Board of Directors of the Bank. More specifically, he was solely responsible for implementing the strategic model for the Retail, Digital, Wholesale, Operations και Information Technology sectors, based on an innovative reorganization plan, aiming at improving existing functions, systems and workflows.

He has been a lecturer of Strategic Planning and Strategic Technology at FORDHAM Graduate Business School and has given many lectures on subjects related to Securitization and Financial Restructuring.

During 2011 - 2015 he was Member of the Board of "Konstantinos Karamanlis Institute for Democracy".

As a former champion of the Hellenic National Junior Athletics Team, he continues to actively support various sports events. He has also been a member of the Board of the Panhellenic Gymnastics Association.
